KILCHOMAN MACHIR BAY

/ 28.0   / 308.0

ISLAY MALT / Alc. 46% / No Age Statement

Enjoy the aromas of citrus zests, crumbly vanilla biscuits and layers of elegant peat smoke. A generous burst of tropical fruits and dried raisins opens the palate with a warming smoke that continues to waft playfully. Leaving you with a finish of sherried fruits and sprinkle of freshly cracked black pepper.

LAGAVULIN 16

/ 32.0   / 348.0

ISLAY MALT / Alc. 43% / Aged 16 Years

Lagavulin is a classic example of how smoke isn't a blunt instrument that covers everything in a fog, but an element that works with all the flavours produced in distillation and maturation. Lagavulin isn't 'smokey,' its peat moves into a queer territory of Lapsang Souchong tea and pipe tobacco, fishboxes and kippers. It smells of laurel and light cereal, but is always sweet. The palate shows more creosote, with hints of kelp and a little touch of iodine.

ARBEG CORRYVRECKAN

/ 38.0   / 408.0

ISLAY MALT / Alc. 57.1% / No Age Statement

Heady and intense with a combination of waxy dark chocolate, warm blackcurrants and muscovado sugar that puts you under its spell with a burst of plump cherries and earthy pin needles leaping from its depths. Torrents of taste well up on the palate; deep, peppery and chewy, bombarding the tongue with its intense taste and textures. Leaving a long, deep and powerful finish with black tarry coffee, chocolate-coated cherries and hot pepper sauce.

JURA SUPERSTITION

/ 30.0   / 328.0

ISLAND MALT / Alc. 43% / No Age Statement

Initial gristy cereal gives way to evocative smoke and heady malt. It's quite sweet and creamy. Palate is sweet and porridge-like. A cereal feast on the tongue with hints of white pepper, black forest honey and hot buttered toast. Light and oily. Medium length finish with cocoa with hints of honey and spice on the tail.

OCTOMORE 8.1

/ 42.0   / 448.0

ISLAY MALT / Alc. 59.3% / No Age Statement

CAOL ILA 1996 OLD MALT CASK

/ 48.0   / 508.0

ISLAY MALT / Alc. 50% / Aged 19 Years

Fruity scents of mango, pineapple and hints of peat, salty smoke, lactic and soot. On the palate, it is quite oily with notes of seaweed, peat, salt, apple, creamy of oak, and vanilla. Leaving a lingering dry and elegant aftertaste with a finishing touch of soft smoke.
